

Media coverage

Evening Telegraph, 24 October 2019

Page 27

Cottingham

Pupils rise to reading challenge

Cottingham Primary School has topped the Corby Library summer reading challenge for the second year running.

More than half the children from the school took part in the Space Chase reading challenge, run by Corby Library, to read at least six books each over the summer break.

The 60 participating children read at least 360 books between them, more than any other primary school in the Corby area.