Cottingham School gets the thumbs up from Usain Bolt!

Cottingham C of E Primary School took part in the Corby, Oundle and Thrapston school athletics tournament at Rockingham Triangle today (Tuesday 6 June) and, to celebrate the 2022 Commonwealth, all schools represented a country.

Cottingham School were Jamaica, and are absolutely thrilled to have one of their Tweets Retweeted by none other than Jamaican sprinting legend Usain Bolt!

Ashley Scott, Head Teacher at Cottingham CofE Primary School said: "I tagged Usain Bolt in our Tweet not really expecting a reply, so needless to say, we are absolutely thrilled by his response! Sport is a very important part of the curriculum here at Cottingham School, and the children did extremely well in the athletics tournament. Usain's Retweet was certainly the icing on the cake, and a great end to a great day!"
